

Museums & Galleries;

Art & History;

Brick Store Museum

www.brickstoremuseum.org – Route 1, Kennebunk, Maine

The Brick store Museum is a museum dedicated to preserving and presenting the cultural and artistic heritage of the Kennebunk's.

Ogunquit Museum of American Art

www.ogunquitmuseum.org – Shore Rd, Ogunquit, Maine

The Ogunquit Museum of American Art engages and educates a diverse audience by collecting, exhibiting, preserving and interpreting American art from the nineteenth century to the present. The Museum integrates its unique artistic heritage and setting to enhance visitor's enjoyment and understanding of art.

Ogunquit Heritage Museum

www.ogunquitheritagemuseum.org – Obed's Lane, Ogunquit, Maine

Our mission is to present educational exhibits and programs that inform and help us remember the heritage of Ogunquit of fishing, farming, ship building, and sea captains, forward to a world renowned art colony and summer theater. Today our village is a busy tourist destination. Through the years, artists, authors, and company presidents came to partake in its beauty and inspiration.

Museums of Old York

www.oldyork.org – York, Maine

The Old York Historical Society, doing business as the Museums of Old York, was founded more than one hundred years ago to preserve the history and artifacts of York, Maine. Originally referred to as Gorgeana, York is one of New England's earliest colonial settlements. It also has the distinction of being the nation's first chartered city (1641) and first incorporated city (1642). Offering thirty-seven period room settings and several galleries housed throughout nine historic museum buildings, the Museums of Old York showcases a wealth of early New England art, architecture, and decorative arts. The exhibits focus on the stories of southern Maine's men, women, and children and the world they created and lived in from the earliest settlement in the 1600s to the present day.

19th Century Willowbrook Village

www.willowbrookmuseum.org – Newfield, Maine

You will truly feel as though you have stepped back in time when you visit this unique destination!

Nott House

www.kporthistory.org/places-to-go/nott-house/ - Kennebunkport Village, Maine

Located in the heart of the village where its Doric colonnade has been a landmark since 1853, this gem of Greek revival architecture takes one back to that time in Kennebunkport's history when shipbuilding thrived and the shipping trade made the town one of the wealthiest in New England.

Saco Museum

www.sacomuseum.org - Main Street, Saco, Maine

The Saco Museum is a regional museum of fine and decorative arts and historic artifacts. The Institute was founded in 1866 and the third oldest museum in Maine.

Portland Museum of Art

www.portlandmuseum.org – Congress Square, Portland, Maine

This is Maine's oldest art museum. It contains a permanent collection of American and European art. There are also changing special exhibits.

Maine Historical Society

www.mainehistory.org – 489 Congress Street, Portland, Maine

The Maine Historical Society honors, preserves, and teaches Maine history through exhibitions, tours, lectures, research, trips and events.

Institute of Contemporary Art at Maine College of Art

www.meca.edu – Porteous Building, 522 Congress Street, Portland, Maine

This museum features leading-edge exhibitions and public programs that showcase new perspectives and new trends in contemporary art.

Portland Headlight/Fort Williams State Park

www.portlandheadlight.com/museum.html - Cape Elizabeth, Maine

The Museum at Portland Head Light is located within the former Keepers' Quarters. The award winning Museum contains a number of lighthouse lenses and interpretative displays.

Historical Society of Wells & Ogunquit

www.historicalsocietyofwellsandogunquit.org – Route 1, Wells, Maine

The Mission of the Historical Society of Wells & Ogunquit is to maintain The Historic Meetinghouse and to operate the Society in order to foster and understanding and appreciation of history for the enlightenment and education of residents and visitors. The Society strives to be a vibrant, visible, community organization that is recognized as a principle repository of the historic past; and, to be a vital participant in the understanding of the present and a prism through which to shape the future.

Kennebunkport Historical Society

www.kporthistory.org – Kennebunkport, Maine

The Society represents several locations including the Nott House, Town House School, Clark Shipyard Office, Bensen Blacksmith Shop, Louis Norton Studio, Pasco Center. Please visit the above website for more details and events that the Society sponsors.

Strawberry Banke Museum

www.strawberrybanke.org – Portsmouth, New Hampshire

Come explore four centuries of American history through the eyes of the people who lived in one of New Hampshire's oldest waterfront neighborhoods.

Galleries;

Barn Gallery

www.barngallery.org – Bourne Lane, Ogunquit, Maine

The award-winning non-profit Barn Gallery offers lively exhibitions, gallery talks, panel discussions and workshops by members of the Ogunquit Art Association and other area artists.

Beth Ellis Cover Gallery

www.bellisart.com – Perkins Cove, Ogunquit, Maine

Today, Beth has a successful gallery at Perkins Cove where she has exhibited paintings of rural and coastal New England for four years. Her works in oil can also be found in private and public collections from coast to coast and are on display in a number of Northeast galleries.

Cuckle-Button Farm Gallery

www.ogunquitgallery.com – Main Street, Ogunquit, Maine

Our gallery is located in the Leavitt Theatre Building, Ogunquit, Maine, "Beautiful Place by the Sea". The gallery, home to many fine works by local artists, includes paintings, photography and sculpture.

Don Gorvet Black Bear Fine Art

www.dongorvetgallery.com - Perkins Cove, Ogunquit, Maine

The gallery is scenically located near the entrance to Perkins Cove, near downtown Ogunquit and close to other destinations including the Ogunquit Museum of American Art. Situated in historic Thompson House on Thompson Green, located at 309 Shore Road, Black Bear Fine Art is home to the renowned, large-scale reduction woodcuts of Don Gorvett.

Automotive/Locomotive;

Wells Auto Museum

www.wellsautomuseum.com – Route 1, Wells, Maine

The Wells Auto Museum is a collection of over 80 antique and classic cars. Our Collection spans over a century of automotive history and includes many rare and unique pieces. Along side the car collection you will find several vintage motorcycles and a fair amount of automotive memorabilia. For the kids, there are vintage games, nickelodeons, and music boxes spread throughout the museum, all in working order.

Seashore Trolley Museum

www.trolley-museum.org – Log Cabin Rd, Kennebunkport, Maine

Come and visit the largest and oldest museum of mass transit, where you get to relive history and follow the footsteps of generations past.

Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad Museum

www.mainenarrowgauge.org – Portland, Maine

The mission of the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad Company & Museum is to collect, preserve, display, interpret and operate historic railroad equipment from Maine's two-foot gauge railways for the education and enjoyment of the public.